

Community Partnerships Mobilizing to Prevent, Manage and Influence STROKE Outcomes

A day of community and academic presentations and panel discussions that will be dedicated to raising awareness and arming participants with information on STROKE warning signs, risk factors, treatment, and disparities.

Friday, July 19, 2013, 8:30 am -2:30 pm

Holman United Methodist Church

3320 West Adams Blvd
Los Angeles, CA 90018

This Symposium is intended for:

Stroke Survivors, Community Members, Caregivers, Families, Health Care Providers, Service Providers, Students, Faith-Based Organizations, Researchers

Translations of the symposium proceedings will be available for Spanish, Korean, and Mandarin

This is a NO COST symposium

Continental breakfast, boxed lunch and afternoon refreshments will be provided.
Free on-site parking

Please register online or by telephone at: <http://haaf.eventbrite.com/>

Telephone: (323)-292-2002 Fax: (323)-292-6121

Sponsored by: Los Angeles Stroke Prevention/Intervention Research Program in Health Disparities (SPRIP, NIH # 1-U54NS081764-01), UCLA Clinical and Translational Science Institute (CTSI, grant UL1TR000124), Healthy African-American Families II, The Accelerating Excellence in Translational Science (AXIS) Center at Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science, grant # NIMHD U54-MD007598), Perinatal Advisory Leadership Advocacy and Consultation

NURSING CEU'S (5 credits) AVAILABLE AT NO COST